

MU-ACC RS MORALITIES

Prof. Mary P. Nyawira Wahome (RS Moralities Spokesperson)

BIONOTE

Prof. Dr. Mary P. Nyawira Wahome is a DAAD Scholar and holds a BA, MA & PhD in Philosophy from the University of Nairobi, Kenya. She is an Associate Professor of Philosophy in the Department of Philosophy, Religion & Theology, School of Arts & Social sciences, Moi University, Eldoret, Kenya. She has taught, supervised and examined Undergraduate and Post-Graduate students in Moi University for several years. She is a researcher of among other areas, University Graduate Tracer Studies (GTS), moral and developmental issues. She has published a book, book chapters and articles in refereed journals. She has participated in developing Training Manuals for higher education and for youth development. She has attended and participated in several training workshops, conferences and seminars globally and locally including DIES/ Graduate Tracer Studies (GTS), DIES International Deans' Course (IDC), DIES/ National Multiplication Trainings (NMT), inter- University Council of East Africa's East African Universities Quality Assurance Network (EAQAN) , Kenya Universities Quality Assurance Network (KUQAN), PASGR'S Pedal and Gendering Policy- Engaged Research trainings. Together with team members from Moi University, Kibabii, Masinde Muliro University of Science & Technology and Alupe University Campus she has lately won two grants funded by DAAD of NMT Projects. These are ; “ Enhancing Strategic Leadership & Management of Higher Education Institutions in Kenya in Post- Covid-19 Era” and NMT Micro Funds for Development Transfer 2021 , “ Development of Induction Training Course for Newly Appointed Academic Heads of departments at Universities through Toprate Training System”. She is a member of the Africa Cluster Centre of Excellence, Bayreuth, Germany, a board member of Moi University Cluster Centre and currently the Spokesperson of the Research Section, Moralities. She has served in administrative positions as Head of Department of Philosophy, Religion & Theology, Associate Dean and currently Acting Dean, School of Arts & Social Sciences, Moi University.

maryngare@yahoo.com

Prof. Joseph Kahiga Kiruki

Bio-Sketch

Joseph Kahiga Kiruki is a Professor of Philosophy in Philosophy in the Department of Philosophy, Religion and Theology within the school of Arts and Social Sciences, Moi University, Eldoret, Kenya. He holds a Ph. D. (1993) in Philosophy from Vienna (Austria) University, one of the most globally outstanding spaces in philosophical discourses. His current research interests include the following disciplines, Critical Thinking, Epistemology, Metaphysics, African Knowledge Systems, Applied Ethics, Philosophy and Development, Gender, Culture, Education and conflict Management. He has published widely in refereed Journals and has several books to his credit.

Department of Philosophy, Religion and Theology
School of Arts and Social Sciences Moi University
P.O. Box 3900' 30100, Eldoret, Kenya
jkkiruki@yahoo.com

Moses Abwire Akuloba

BIO DATA

Moses Abwire Akuloba is currently a Doctorate student of Philosophy at Moi University specializing in Environmental Ethics. He holds an M. Phl. Degree in Philosophy from the same institution. He has been a lecturer of Philosophy since 2003. He has attended and participated in a number of conferences and had some of his papers published as chapters in books and refereed journal. He has also authored one monograph. Mosabwire2002@yahoo.com

Dr. Bramwel Matui

BODATA:

(Senior Lecturer Political Science & Public Administration+254-719524211, bmatui@mu.ac.ke)

Dr Bramwel Matui is a Senior Lecturer in Political science and Public Administration in the Department of History, Political science and Public Administration in the School of Arts and Social Sciences. In June 4-5, 2012 Dr Matui participated as a Volunteer in the Hague Process on Refugees and Migration in the Peace Palace (The Hague) in The Netherlands. Dr Matui Has PhD in Development Studies from the International Institute of Social Studies (ISS) of Erasmus University in the Netherlands; Master of Arts in International relations (Webster University, USA 2013) and a Postgraduate Diploma in Governance, Democratization and Public Policy from the ISS (2010). In Addition, Dr Matui has an Mphil in Development Studies (Moi University, 2004) and Bachelor of Arts Degree (Second Upper 1995, Kenyatta University). Prior to joining University in 2009, Dr Matui was a District Youth and Sports Officer (2007-2009) and a Deputy District Land Adjudication/Settlement Officer (1999-2007) in West Pokot and Narok district. He is a researcher in Development Management and international Relations with a focus on the following themes: Politics, Institutionalism, Organizations, mobilities, affiliations, integrations, and Public Policy. His recent book from his PhD work titled “Collective Memory, Intra-ethnic interactions: the politics of becoming and being “Sabaot” in Kenya” was underpinned by ethnic response to their Forced displacement. The peer reviewed publications are listed here below.

Dr. Ademola Kazeem FAYEMI

Bios

Ademola Kazeem FAYEMI Ph.D. (kfayemi@unilag.edu.ng, +2348062305327) is a Senior Lecturer at the Department of Philosophy, University of Lagos, Nigeria. He is a Principal Investigator at the Lagos-ACC. He writes and lectures widely in African philosophy, African Bioethics and African environmental ethics. Dr. Fayemi received Global Excellence Postdoctoral Fellowship Award from the University of Johannesburg in 2017 where he interrogated beauty by surgical and non-surgical designs in the sub-Saharan through an Afro-bioethical lens. He won the 2020 Mark S. Ehrenreich Prize in Healthcare Ethics Research for the African region, awarded by the Pacific Center for Health Policy and Ethics, University of Southern California at the 15th World Congress of Bioethics Virtual Conference for being the best paper from Africa presented at the Congress. Until recently, he was a Research Fellow, Moi University African Cluster Centre of the Africa Multiple Cluster of Excellence, Kenya. Dr. Fayemi's current research is on developing a relational ethical framework for research ethics in the project of reconfiguring African Studies. The link to his professional academic profile is <https://philpeople.org/profiles/ademola-fayemi>

ALICE JEBUNGEI KURGAT BIO DATA

Dr. Alice J. C Kurgat is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of History Political Science and Public Administration, Moi University. Dr. Kurgat holds a Post-Graduate Diploma (PGD) in Peace and Conflict Resolution from Uppsala University, Sweden, a Master of Arts (M.A.) degree in International Relations from Ukrainian Institute of International Relations at Kiev State University and a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) from Moi University, Eldoret, Kenya. Her research interests focus on the intersection between international relations, politics and conflict management.

Musi Philip Nyongesa

Bios

Philip Musi is a lecturer of Philosophy in the department of Philosophy, Religion and Theology in the School of Arts and Social Sciences of Moi University. His area of focus is Axiology, specifically applied ethics and social and political Philosophy. He's several publications in this area and working on his D.Phil. thesis. In applied ethics, he's focused mostly on research ethics (bioethics).

Prof. Robert Ochoi Oduori

Bionote

Prof. Robert O. Oduori is an Associate Professor of Kiswahili in the department of Kiswahili and Other African Languages of Moi University. His area of interest is Critical Discourse Analysis. He is also a specialist in Literary text translations. Notably, he was among the lead team that translated the Standing Orders of the National Assembly from English to Kiswahili. Prof. Oduori has taught, supervised and developed Kiswahili Programmes both locally and internationally. He is equally widely published in journals, books and book chapters. ocholit@yahoo.com

Dr. Simon Gisege Omare

Bionote

Simon Gisege Omare holds a PhD in Religious Studies. His area of interest is Sociology of Religion. He is a Senior Lecturer at Moi University, Kenya. Omare is the author of Witchcraft Scapegoat: Abagusii beliefs and violence against 'witches'. Germany: Lambert Academic Publishing. 2015. ISBN: 978-3-659-75170-7 and Religion and Environment conservation. The Role of Isukha religious beliefs and practices in the Conservation of Kakamega Forest, Kenya. Germany: Lambert Academic Publishing Company.2010. ISBN: 978-3-8383-8314-9. He has written five chapters in books and more than 10 scholarly articles. Simon enjoys reading and writing topics in sociology of religion.